Materials:

- Brother ScanNCut2 Cutting Machine
- 12"x12" square canvas
- Gel medium
- Variety of papers including, telephone books, Fabric Elements Tissue Paper, book pages, and scrapbook papers
- Roller
- Jacquard Dye-na-Flow free flowing acrylic paint
- White and black acrylic craft paint
- Flat 1" paint brush
- Stencil brush or triangle cosmetic sponge
- White card stock 12"
- Black archival ink pad
- ArtFoamies foam stamps, designs by Rebekah Meier

Instructions:

1. Brush a thin even layer of gel medium onto canvas surface.
2. Place papers on top of gel medium, and press with hands or a roller. Let dry.
3. Paint background with diluted thin bodied acrylics. Remove excess paint with paper towel. Let dry.
4. Load round brush with diluted thin bodied acrylic. Start at the top and drip the paint letting it run down the canvas.
5. Using gel medium, apply paper butterflies (or other paper images) onto canvas. Paint over butterflies with thin acrylic.
6. Create stencils with the Brother ScanNCut machine.
7. Stamp canvas with foam (Art Foamies) and rubber stamps.
8. Using black paint, stencil the designs (created with canvas Brother ScanNCut2 Cutting Machine).
9. Dip cap rims into paint and stamp onto canvas.
