Instructions

1. Gesso a journal page and let it dry.

2. Apply some paints to the left of the page in the following order: Cheddar, Magenta, and Sky.
3. Spray the paints with water and let them flow and blend across the page. Help the paint along with your fingers, if necessary.
4. When the paint is half-dry, dip a lid into Night paint and add circles. The circles will bleed and blend a bit.
5. Allow the whole background to dry.
6. Stamp images on watercolor cardstock with Jet Black Archival ink.
7. Color the images with watercolor crayons.
8. Wet the crayons to blend them.
9. Cut out the images and glue them onto the dry background.
